Description

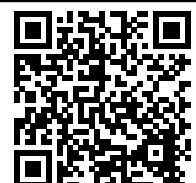

An excellent silver mounted letter opener or paper knife from early in the reign of George V. This useful item has an attractive shaped blade, unusually made of solid Jade. The handle is of hallmarked silver and mirrors the blade in shape. Fitted to the inside is a rather useful steel penknife, which folds away neatly. To the front are Script initials and date of 1.11.13, along with a retailers mark to the reverse. The slender and flat shape of the blade would also serve well as a bookmark. A delightful and collectable piece with practical uses. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £10.00 UK £18.00 Europe £24.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no damage to the handle, blade or knife. The knife hinge is strong and the blade folds away neatly. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable, Retailers mark. Date :- London 1913. Maker :- William Hornby. Retailed by Lowe, 20 Grafton Street, London. Length :- 13.5 cms. Length with knife folded out :- 16.5 cms. Width (widest point) :- 1.5 cms.
