Description

This very elegant large antique fine quality Serapi Persian rug, early 20th century in date. Woven at the turn of the century, this striking Persian Serapi oversize carpet is distinguished in several ways. It's expansive size, casually elegant botanical imagery, and splendid color palette, especially it's deep cream field, are all attractive and rarely seen elements. Of particular note is the rug's mesmerizing vermilion blue central medallion holding a fully open green-blue lotus blossom. Provenance: Bought at great expense in Beverly Hills in the late 1980s. Condition: In excellent condition with only very minor signs of wear, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 390 cm x Width 297 cm x Depth 2 cm Dimensions in inches: Height 12 foot, 9 inches x Width 9 foot, 9 inches x Depth 1 inch Serapi carpets include some of the most rare and desirable room-size to palace-size antique Persian rugs. Woven at the elevation of 6200 feet above sea level in the rugged mountains of Azerbaijan, Northwest Persia, antique Serapis are a distinct Heriz-region style, with finer knotting and more large-scale, spaciouly placed designs than other rugs from this are...
