Description

An unusual example of Victorian tea-table ware. This charming celery vase has a slice cut baluster stem, with a teardrop blown through. The bowl is tulip shaped with an unusual inward turned flute cut rim and lovely etched floral and foliar details. The base is cut with a multi point star. A delightful and usable item that would serve as well for flowers, as it's original purpose. A good collector's piece, both decorative and practical. Dimensions below.
