Description

A truly unique and captivating carved wood bench featuring two large, intricately carved bears at either end, this bench is a rare example of the highly sought-after Black Forest bear style. Each end of the bench is held by a standing bear, masterfully hand-carved from solid wood and finished in a distressed ivory coloured paint. The bears are depicted in upright poses, arms outstretched to support the seat between them. The backrest is a masterpiece in itself, designed with pierced carvings of intertwining branches and hand-painted green leaves. Nestled at the centre of the backrest is a charming baby bear, also carved in wood, standing playfully while holding a branch in each paw. The seat is spacious enough for two and is comfortably proportioned for use. In very good strong solid condition. W 152.5cm (5ft) D 38cm (15") H 88.5cm (34.75") Seat H 49.5cm (19.5")
