Description

This is an antique glazed bookcase. An English, oak display cabinet, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880. Elegant Victorian bookcase with attractive proportion and fine craftsmanship. Quality oak stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Tall glazed doors bathe the interior with natural light, ideal for books or collectable displays. Three shelf interior, each with leather dust aprons in a charming sash motif. Shelves adjustable for flexible display height or removable as preferred. Shelf depth accommodates books or objects up to 23cm deep. Finished with a low, shaped back rest for a refined profile. Standing upon a continuous plinth foot, adding stability and elegance. Rear panelled for attractive appearance when free-standing. Lightly aged patina, consistent with careful long-term use. A superb example of Victorian display furniture, this oak glazed bookcase presents a refined and practical solution for the library, drawing room, or hallway. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 130cm (51.25") Max Depth: 32cm (12.5") Max Height: 130cm (51.25") Shelf Depth: 23cm (9") Internal Ref: 25549
