Description

A superb example of traditional craftsmanship, this vintage Persian rug is hand-knotted in fine wool and presented in excellent condition. It features a striking, intricately woven design centred around a bold medallion, with symmetrical motifs radiating outward and framed by richly detailed borders. The palette of cream and wine lends warmth and sophistication, while the composition blends precise geometry with graceful floral elements. Completed with hand-knotted fringe and vivid colouration, this rug is both visually captivating and of exceptional quality. Its timeless design and rich character make it a stunning addition to any interior—be it classic or contemporary.
