Description

Type of artwork: Original Etching – Bust of a Man with a Fur Cap (after Longhi / Titian) Surface: Etching laid on paper Artist and Signature: Annotated in ink lower left: J.B. Waring ? Dated in ink lower right: 1837 Etched credit in plate: "E.W. Ottley del." ? Subject: This is a striking 19th-century etching of a bearded man in a fur cap, after the original composition by Giuseppe Longhi, which itself was based on a lost or unidentified work by Titian (Tiziano Vecellio). Unlike the original Italian engraving by Longhi, this version shows a distinctly British academic hand – with looser drypoint work, experimental hatching, and expressive re-interpretation of the original pose. We cannot find another exact copy of the etching anywhere....We are speculating that it may have produced as part of an educational or museum-based print project, possibly directed by William Young Ottley (former Keeper of Prints, British Museum) The work is dated 1837 in ink and may have been privately printed or issued in a limited curatorial edition. Approximate age of artwork: Dated 1837, early Victorian era Is the artwork Framed or Mounted: Mounted on soft card, ready to frame Size of...
