Description

A charming and practical paper roll dispenser dating to the early 20th century, likely from the 1910s-1920s. This piece features decorative cast iron end supports stamped "HUY" and a beech platform and top rail, both showing attractive aged patina. The central bar holds several iron guides designed to support a roll of paper, making it ideal for use in a general store, butcher's shop, or wrapping station. H: 30 W: 61 D: 21 cm
