Description

A rare and wonderfully office cabinet dating from the early 20th century, originally used for managing the records of a country estate. Crafted from polished mahogany and adorned with hand-painted gilt lettering, each drawer and compartment is clearly labelled for its original administrative function. This cabinet is in great condition. Ideal for collectors, designers, or anyone drawn to heritage-inspired interiors. We believe that the painting has been retouched over the years making it a later addition. H: 107.5 W: 55 D: 35.5 cm
