Description

An early 20th-century oak shop counter offers a beautiful balance of form and function. Crafted from richly grained oak, the piece features a warm, dark finish and a well-proportioned layout, ideal for both display and storage. The front showcases four solid drawers with original brass pull handles, offering plenty storage space. To the right, a set of open shelves provides easy access for shop use or an excellent opportunity for visual merchandising. H: 90 W: 139 D: 56 cm
