Description

An impressive and rare Helena Wolfsohn Dresden porcelain vase with original lid, dating to circa 1880. The vase features finely painted Watteau-style cartouches depicting romantic couples, framed by rich raised gilding. The turquoise ground is enhanced with hand-painted floral panels, characteristic of high-quality Dresden decoration of the late 19th century. To the reverse is the underglaze blue mark used by Helena Wolfsohn during the short lifespan of the manufactory (1879–1883), so the products of this manufactory are rare. The vase exemplifies the workshop's role in continuing the finest traditions of German porcelain painting. The blanks were sourced from major manufactories, while the decoration was executed to an exceptional standard. The large scale of the vase (37.5 cm tall) and the refined color palette make this an outstanding collector's piece. Condition: Excellent antique condition. Minor wear to gilding on the finial; otherwise no chips, cracks, or restorations. Dimensions: Height: 37.5 cm Diameter: 22.5 cm Weight: 2533 g Please st...
