Description

An antique mahogany desk dating to the late 19th century, designed with elegant proportions and fine craftsmanship. The rectangular top is supported by four tapered legs on brass castors, allowing for ease of movement. Two drawers, each with boxwood stringing and brass swan-neck handles, provide practical storage. The piece features delicate inlay detailing that enhances the warmth of the mahogany grain. Its restrained design and quality materials make it well-suited for use as a writing desk or console table.
