Description

A handsome early 20th century mahogany library chair, upholstered in rich burgundy leather with traditional studded detail. The deep curved back and rolled arms offer excellent comfort and support, while the fully sprung seat ensures lasting usability. Raised on elegant cabriole front legs and splayed rear supports, this generously proportioned desk or reading chair combines classic Edwardian style with timeless sophistication. The warm tones of the mahogany and the leather make it an ideal statement piece for a study, home office, or gentleman's library.
