Description

An exceptional 19th-century Far Eastern rosewood table featuring an impressive, deeply carved top and apron. Its striking silhouette and rich wood tones make it a magnificent focal point for a principal sitting room, a prominent hallway, or an eclectic gallery space. The table is defined by its highly detailed, hand-carving that showcases traditional dragon motifs swirling across the surface and edges. A classic symbol in oriental art representing power, strength, and good luck. Crafted from premium, dense rosewood, the piece highlights a spectacular natural grain pattern that brings remarkable depth to the intricate craftsmanship. The piece is in excellent condition. It has been beautifully polished and is ready for immediate use in the home. Dimensions: * Width: 53.5cm * Height: 65.5cm
