Description

An exceptional 18th-century giltwood mirror crowned with an elegant, hand-carved foliate cresting. Its grand presence and historical charm make it a magnificent statement piece to hang above a fireplace mantle, in a formal dining room, or within a welcoming entrance hall. The frame features finely detailed leaf and branch motifs that exemplify the master craftsmanship of the period, all finished in a rich, warm gilding. Crucially, the mirror retains its original period glass, which offers a soft, authentic reflection that reproduction glass simply cannot replicate. The piece is in good overall condition. It is ready to hang, and displays some historic repairs to the frame that add to its authentic period character. Dimensions: * Height: 97cm * Width: 60cm
