Description

A very desirable un-restored antique. This exceptionally fine period oil lamp is in superb condition throughout and dates to early 20th century. Boasting a beautiful tulip shaped hand blown and acid etched glass shade mounted to a fully functioning, galleried duplex burner. No less impressive is the clear glass font featuring a circle of star cut motifs beneath a high waisted recess. To support this stunning arrangement is a reeded brass Corinthian style column on a Black ceramic base. A real treasure, every part in excellent condition. No cracks, No dints. Mild tarnish to brass work. This lot consists of Shade, chimney, burner, font on column as pictured. Overall height 28 inches, base diameter 7 inches. Weight 3.5Kg net.
