Description

Exquisite Edwardian Diamond and Pearl Bangle in 18ct Gold & Platinum This truly beautiful antique bangle is a fine example of Edwardian elegance and refinement. Handcrafted in 18ct gold with platinum settings, it features a luminous creamy white natural pearl at its centre, surrounded by a halo of bright, lively old cut diamonds. The central design flows gracefully into a slim knife-edge bangle, collet-set with a graduating line of old cut diamonds on each side. The diamonds are delicately millegrain edged in platinum, enhancing their brilliance and lending a soft, romantic shimmer typical of the period. This elegant bracelet sits beautifully on the wrist and makes a statement of timeless sophistication — a piece to be cherished and admired. Total diamond weight approx. 1.30 carat (11 x 2mm, 2 x 3.5mm, 2 x 3mm, 2 x 2.6mm, 2 x 2.3mm) Lustrous cultured pearl: 4.8mm diameter Interior width: 5.8cm (fits up to 18cm / 7" wrist) Weight: 14 grams Metal: Tests as 18ct gold and platinum Clasp: Secure push box clasp with safety chain Date: Edwardian, circa 1910 Condition: In excellent original condition Comes in the presentation box illustrated Our Ref: 22108 This ti...
