Description

A rare late 18th century 2 plank Welsh pine farmhouse table with what appears to be original paint and lovely patination. It seats 8 people comfortably with a good height of 77 cms. The base is of ash and the table is sturdy. There is a drawer to end (illustrated) which exudes age and character. The two plank top is secured to two supporting batons in the typical Welsh way with a mixture of handmade nails and pegs. The two end cleats are most likely later replacements. In good antique condition overall, showing natural signs of age. There is surface wear in places, including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. The top shows some splitting as well as additional scratches. A super looking table oozing rustic charm.
