Description

Antique Austrian Officers Clock With Centre Date Quarter Chiming Joseph Jessner. This beautiful antique mantel clock has a gilt bronze, figural case that shows cupid with his bow whilst leading a dog. Both cupid and the dog are cast in absolutely superb detail. The clock housing then has a lovely rounded top with cupids quivering and torch resting open them. Beneath the dial there is a gilt bronze plaque reading "n'oubliez pas l'amour" or "forget not love". The base of the case is then shaped with lovely floral mounts to the front and sides. Finally the case is finished by four lovely shaped, engine turned feet. The dial is then round with an enamel chapter ring set out in black Arabic numeral with a thin ring of dashes to the outside marking the minutes. The chapter ring is then signed to the bottom by the maker "Joseph Jessner in ssien". There is then an engine turned ring followed by the enamel centre date set out with the 31 month. Finally there is another small engine turned disk to the centre of the date as well as the clock being finished by two lovely shaped hands and a domed protective glass. The clock is then wound from the front and accessed from the ba...
