Description

A stunning, fine and impressive 3.50 carat Burmese sapphire and 1.65 carat diamond, 18 carat white gold crescent brooch; part of our diverse collection of antique crescent brooches. This stunning, fine and impressive antique Victorian sapphire brooch has been crafted in 18ct white gold. The pierced decorated crescent shaped frame is embellished with seven pavé set graduated cushion cut Burmese sapphires, totalling 3.50cts. The feature gemstones alternate with eight pavé set Old European cut diamonds totalling 1.65cts. The impressive antique crescent brooch secures to the reverse with a hinged pin and safety clasp. This crescent brooch has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold. This impressive Victorian sapphire brooch is supplied with an IDGL diamond and gemstone grading report card, in addition to a sapphire report card and certificate supplied by the Gemmological Certification Services, London*. Such examples with untreated Burmese sapphires are becoming increasingly difficult to locate; this brooch is one of the finest of its type you could hope to acquire.
