Description

A stunning rare pair of English provincial Georgian antique solid sterling silver berry serving spoons. They are hallmarked for Exeter 1792 with the maker being William Ferris. They have been superbly made being embossed with fruit and interestingly engraved with a stags head and wreath crest used by both the Belligham and Lloyd Families (the wreath looks like a feather but I'm pretty sure its supposed to be a wreath as I can find no crest with a stags head and feather). They are in superb condition being free from dings splits distortions and repairs. They measure approx. 9 inches (23cm) long by 2 inches (4.8cm) wide and weighs 115 grams. A super quality early pair.
