Description

Antique Oak Pot Board Dresser Base Bring timeless character and practicality to your home with this handsome antique oak pot board dresser base. Crafted in the late 18th to early 19th century, this piece showcases the warm patina and rich grain only centuries-old oak can offer. The dresser features three spacious drawers with attractive brass handles, perfect for storing linens, cutlery, or household essentials. Below, the open pot board base offers versatile display or storage space. Notably, the base retains its original hand sawn boards—each plank bearing the charming irregularities and tool marks that speak to traditional craftsmanship. Elegant shaped aprons and sturdy chamfered square legs complete the design, making this dresser base a wonderful addition to kitchens, dining rooms, or hallways alike. Whether used as a functional sideboard or a decorative focal point, this piece embodies rustic refinement and enduring quality. Dimensions: 148cms wide 58 1/4ins 42cms deep 16 1/2ins 74cms high 29ins Key Features: • Original hand sawn boards on the base • Three deep drawers with period brass handles • Richly figured oak with a warm antique patina • Traditional joinery a...
