Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive, large antique George IV York sterling silver platter/centrepiece; an addition to our collection of silver decorative trays. This exceptional and large antique George IV York sterling silver display tray/platter has an oval shaped form. The convex surface of the silver tray is embellished with an impressive later chased floral spray design; the convex nature of the centre creates a well to the outer circumference. The domed border is ornamented with further floral and foliate decoration, accented with a paralleling scalloped rim. This exceptional antique silver platter was crafted by James Barber & Co in York, England; large pieces of silver bearing the York town mark are rare to the market. An antique sterling silver decorative platter/silver centrepiece is a distinguished and versatile gift, ideal for weddings, anniversaries, retirements or housewarmings. Suitable as a centrepiece or display tray, it embodies timeless elegance and refined taste. Condition This antique decorative platter is a superior gauge of silver, exceptional quality and in exceptional condition. The later chased decoration is all very sharp. Full hallmarks s...
