Description

This exquisite Meiji period Japanese blue and white porcelain charger, measuring 73 cm in diameter, showcases the artistry of traditional Japanese ceramics. The intricate design features a serene scene with a contemplative figure seated on a balcony, surrounded by stylized waves and clouds. The deep blue hues against the white background create a striking contrast, highlighting the delicate craftsmanship. The detailed patterns of the waves and foliage reflect the natural beauty revered in Japanese art. This charger not only serves as a stunning decorative piece but also embodies the cultural significance and artistic heritage of the Meiji era. (1868-1912) Batch 84 63530. DNKZZ
