Description

This exquisite late 19th-century French Sevres-style porcelain lidded potpourri vase stands at an impressive 56 cm high, showcasing the elegance and artistry characteristic of the era. The vase features intricate hand-painted scenes depicting courting couples sitting on shores of a harbour and fisherman working, surrounded by vibrant turquoise and gilded decorations. Its opulent design is complemented by a finely detailed lid, which adds to its grandeur. The combination of rich colors and delicate craftsmanship highlights the vase's historical significance, making it a stunning centerpiece or collectible for any admirer of fine porcelain art. The underglaze mark signifies its authenticity and connection to the prestigious Sevres tradition. Batch 84 62436 LNKZ
