If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact. Charles Harmony Harrison was born in Great Yarmouth in 1842. He was the apprentice to sign writer Mr Platt. Whilst apprentice to Mr Platt, Charles gained knowledge on how to mix and apply paints, developing his knowledge on colour. In his spare time, Charles studied art, gaining a deeper understanding through reading, visiting exhibitions and studying the Norwich School of Artists, notably works by Crome and Cotman. In 1869 h...
