Description

Antique French Bronze Three-Arm Table Lamp. (PAIR AVAILABLE) A top-quality, early 20th-century French table lamp, crafted in heavy bronze and formed as a candelabra with a stylish lyre-shaped back. This substantial piece features three elegant scrolled arms, each supporting a faux candle with a glass bobèche below. The lamp is designed for B15 small bayonet bulbs and is fitted with pleated silk shades, offering a warm and refined glow. It stands on a graduated triform base, topped with an ornate glass finial. Beautifully adorned with crystal and glass drops, the lamp showcases intricate floral and star-shaped motifs, with subtle colour variations that enhance its decorative appeal. This is a very heavy, high-quality lamp, reflecting excellent craftsmanship throughout. The base is stamped and numbered, including a foundry mark, attesting to its authenticity and origin. It has been professionally rewired and PAT tested, ensuring it is safe and ready for modern use.
