Description

English, Circa 1810. A charming Regency mahogany dwarf bookcase with 2 glazed doors in the top section, with working lock and key and 2 height adjustable shelves inside. Beautiful colour mahogany with brass closing strip. The top section sits above an ebony inlaid secretaire drawer, fitted with 4 small drawers inside, the drawer front drops down to create a writing surface. Decorative brass flowers sit either side of the pull out secretaire and above ebony scroll carvings. The base has 2 large panelled doors which open to reveal a single shelf inside. This bookcase is a good unusual size, ready for use in the home.
