Description

This is a remarkable Museum quality unrestored and almost unworn example of the Legendary manual winding Omega 267 from 1960-61. The only work we have carried out is to service the movement and give the case a light polish with a soft cloth. The gold filled case is 34.5mm in diameter excluding the original crown, a full size gents. It is perfect with no signs of wear whatsoever. The case edges are sharp and crisp the watch looks like it was kept hidden away in a drawer and never worn. The movement is the legendary Omega calibre 267, Omegas greatest manual winding movement. It has been freshly serviced and is currently running at plus 5 seconds per day, not bad for a 65 year old watch. The very rare gloss black dial is totally original and perfect it has had no restoration whatsoever. The original leaf hands are matching gold. The movement serial number and original paperwork indicate that this watch was made in 1960 and sold a little later in 1961. Its the most original and perfect unrestored and complete example you will ever see. It comes with its original gold filled Omega buckle. The original inner and outer boxes are in near perfect condition. The model...
