Description

A stylish and well-crafted pair of early 20th century brass standard lamps, each featuring an elegant arched swan-neck arm with a scroll detail and a reeded column. The lamps stand on decorative tripod bases with boldly cast claw-and-ball feet, showcasing classical influence and fine detailing. Rewired and ready to use. These lamps are both functional and sculptural, offering a sophisticated lighting solution for traditional interiors. Perfect for beside, armchairs, in libraries, or as accent lighting in hallways or drawing rooms.
