Description

A rare Art Deco Brass Corner Coat and Hat Rack. A rare corner version of a classic piece — this is a fine example with a distinctive industrial and early 20th-century aesthetic, reminiscent of those found in vintage cloakrooms, train stations, and schools. The upper section features a generously sized storage shelf, formed from three circular brass rods that terminate in decorative finials. Below, a square tubular rail supports nine adjustable hooks, offering ample hanging space for coats, hats, and accessories. The brass has developed a beautiful, time-worn patina consistent with its age, adding character and charm. A stylish and practical addition to any hallway, boot room, or cloakroom. The left shelf measures 79cm and the right shelf is slightly shorter at 71cm.
