Description

Vintage Cropp & Farr Long Pearl Necklace – 50" Strand with 9ct White Gold Clasp, 1967 This elegant vintage pearl necklace by renowned British jewellers Cropp & Farr is a superb example of 1960s craftsmanship. Measuring an impressive 50 inches in length, this single strand of creamy ivory cultured pearls is both versatile and timeless. The pearls are individually hand-knotted, slightly graduated in size from 10mm to 6.5mm, and display a gentle lustre with a soft ivory tone. The necklace is secured with a beautiful 9ct white gold hook clasp, fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1967, and stamped with the maker's initials C&F. Thanks to its generous length, this necklace can be styled in multiple ways – worn long, doubled over for a layered look, or even wrapped around the wrist as a statement bracelet. The piece has a graceful drape and makes a refined addition to any jewellery collection.
