Description

Edwardian style! A lovely unusual early 20th century mahogany music cabinet or chest with ten drawers. What a useful piece of furniture this is! This lovely cabinet is of very narrow form makes it very economical in terms of floor space use. The drawers are fitted with brass handles and dropdown fronts which was a feature of sheet music cabinet, ideal for a home office because you can see the edges of the files of books when the front drops down. The cabinet has a great colour to the wood from years of polishing. Please see our other listings for more antique, vintage and retro furniture.
