Description

Outstanding quality antique Victorian burr walnut sewing and writing/lamp table having a quality burr walnut shaped lift up top with a moulded edge opening to reveal a pair of ink wells, pen tray and a green leather writing surface above a single fitted sewing drawer supported by two carved walnut columns standing on shaped carved cabriole legs with original porcelain castors united by a carved walnut stretcher. An unusual and exceptional example of first class quality, the interior looks untouched and in perfect condition. This would make a fabulous lamp table, occasional desk or bedside cabinet. The sewing drawer is removable. We can offer our own very competitive international shipping with delivery in most cases within 21 days. Please ask us for details.
