Description

A superb, iconic, scarce and stylish Art Deco table or desk lamp of two dancing ladies in cold painted spelter holding aloft its original Loetz type veined glass globe mounted on an oval alabaster base. The iconic and striking design is one of the most coveted examples of Art Deco lady lamps available and the figures are crisply modelled retaining their original paintwork. The globe shade to the lamp is in wonderful condition. Condition: The entire lamp is in excellent condition, with no restoration, except for renewal of electrical cable and retains its original paintwork which is lightly age worn but overall in great order. Fully working, with its original push button switch. Size: 51cm high. Date: c.1930.
