Description

Type of artwork: Pair of Original Oil Paintings on Board – Saddled Horse Portraits Surface: Oil on board Artist and Signature: Signed C. Harrison Equestrian Study: A matched pair of antique oil paintings depicting saddled horses in rural landscapes. Each horse is painted in side profile, with careful attention to anatomy and tack detail. The background landscapes are softly painted with rolling hills and open skies, giving a gentle sense of place. The works are housed in matching black and gilt frames, making them ideal for display together in an equestrian home or country house room setting. Approximate age of artwork: Early-mid 20th century (antique) Is the artwork Framed or Mounted: Yes – matching black frames with gilt slip Size of each painting: 24 x 19 cm (mount aperture approx. 19 x 13 cm) Condition Report: Both paintings are in very good condition. Surfaces are clean and stable, colours strong, and frames solid with only minor age-related marks. Please review photographs for your own assessment.
