Description

An attractive pair of late 19th / early 20th century hand embroidered Chinese pictures on silk depicting garden birds in tree branches and mandarin ducks on water with chrysanthemum blossom. The pictures are very finely embroidered in silk and have pretty pastel shades. The pair are both hand signed by the artisan with their signature and red chop mark to the top left. Lovely original condition in original neat solid oak frames with contrasting painted green inner section to highlight the work. The embroideries measure 33 cms by 24 cms overall including the frames. UK delivery is £12.
