

SA115974

Magnificent Grand English Victorian Candelabra Centrepiece - Oak Tree & Stag c.1860

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA115974*Date of manufacture: 1860

Description

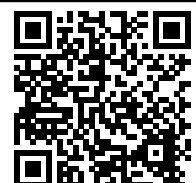

Always highly sought-after and never seen, this grand Electro Silver Plated centerpiece towers 27 inches tall and beautifully cast in the form of an English Oak Tree. I have seen one similar over the years made by the prestigious and highly sought-after Elkington & Co., this one is undoubtedly made by the same silversmith, but unmarked. What is rather special about this example is that it comes complete with original base complete with the original mirrored top, these are almost always missing or replaced, this one cast with rocks and foliage. This base is fitted around a solid Mahogany frame. The working is quite stunning with a large Stag eating from the Oak Tree and to the left of the Stag is a Fawn lying down. The tree is beautifully cast with intricate Oak Leaf and Acorns covering the branches, all three arms of the candelabra are removable and each numbered one through three to match up with the corresponding labelled holes for them to fit into, they will only fit in the correct order. The heavy cut crystal bowl rests on the top of the tree, thick and heavy and exquisitely cut in the form of Oak Leaves. Exquisite in every way, you won't come across another (nor ...

Internal Ref: 83174

Seller Details

Puckerings

London United Kingdom

Tel: 07853 189 922

International Tel: +44 7853 189 922