Description

Baume & Mercier – Vintage 1950s – 18ct Yellow Gold – Salmon Dial – Manual Wind A truly striking example of mid-century Swiss watchmaking, this early 1950s Baume & Mercier combines timeless elegance with an unusual and highly desirable salmon-pink dial. Its warm tones and vintage proportions make it a standout dress watch for any serious collector. The 35mm 18ct yellow gold case is complemented by a pink gold crown, while the dial features Arabic numeral hour markers and gold-tone hands believed to be original to the watch. Signed Swiss Made, the dial's salmon finish must be seen in person to fully appreciate its depth and charm. Powered by a manual wind movement, this watch will be sold fully serviced and ready to wear, ensuring reliable timekeeping for decades to come. The case back is clean and free from personal engravings, retaining its original vintage character.
