Description

This is a really superb quality English Regency (1820) side cabinet or chiffonier in rosewood with fully adjustable shelves to both the top and bottom section, very much in the manner of Gillows. I have shown the slim top section with two shelves and one, but also a detailed photo of the wonderful shelf supports, which are also made in solid rosewood. Super colour to the rosewood, more of a golden tone than the typical which works so well with the brass grille and glass doors, lined with a pale silk that can be changed if you would rather a different fabric. Good size piece of furniture, but still elegant with the shallow depth and the top section being set back so you have a surface area too...this would make a fabulous drinks cabinet perhaps, or display bookcase. Great condition and of high quality, the top section does detach from the base for transport...delivery is no problem to arrange, wherever you are! Measuring: 57 3/4 inches or 146.5 cm high 52 inches or 132 cm wide. 14 1/2 inches or 37 cm deep base section 7 1/2 inches or 19 cm deep top section
