Description

A distinguished Victorian oak library table, featuring a rectangular top with an oxblood leather inset and gold tooling. Beneath the top are two short drawers fitted with brass drop handles. Raised on turned legs with original castors, this table combines solid construction with classic period style. Item Ref; M-6201 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 77cm / Width - 107cm / Depth - 49.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout, showing authentic signs of age and use. The surface displays marks and scratches consistent with its vintage character. The leather inset shows some scratches and fading, and there is minor staining to the sides. Despite these signs of wear, the table remains solid and fully functional. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the description and condition report, offering important visual details regarding the item's appearance and quality.
