Description

A rare Wedgwood lustre "Antique Bowl" (pattern Z5068) designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones, c.1915. Exterior in Powder Blue lustre, with hand-painted multicolour butterflies in flight; interior in Mother-of-Pearl lustre with a single butterfly at centre. Makeig-Jones, famed for her Fairyland Lustre, introduced naturalistic subjects into lustreware, making each piece a miniature artwork. This bowl's vibrant palette and fine gilding exemplify the quality of Wedgwood's early 20th-century decorative production. Size: Height 8 cm, diameter 12 cm Condition: Excellent antique condition, with only pale staining visible inside. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance.
