Description

Victorian Pine and Mahogany Chest of Drawers of a good size. Two over three drawers with a "secret" drawer at the top that can only be opened by releasing a hidden catch. It has carved Mahogany embellishments down both sides, Mahogany turned knobs and a Mahogany trim around the top. Standing on a plinth base. The colour contrast between the Pine and Mahogany makes it particularly attractive and it is the perfect piece for a bedroom, providing both storage and charm. In good solid condition, with age related signs of wear and some ancient woodworm scarring in the plinth. Width 127.5 cm Depth 56 cm Height 122 cm
