Description

Duncan Fraser McLea (1841-1916) Coastal Landscape with Ship and Fisherman at Dusk Date: 1894 Medium: Oil on canvas Provenance: From a private UK collection. Signed lower left-hand side and dated "94" (1894) Overall measurements with the frame are 63cm x 45cm x 5cm and the painting itself measured at 47.5cm x 30.5cm An extremely atmospheric and beautifully composed oil painting by the British landscape and seascape painter Duncan Fraser McLea (1841-1916). The work offered is an extremely fine example of this distinctive and unique artist's work. The attention to detail is typical of the artist's work as is the rendering of the light and form that are characteristic of McLea's maritime-themed compositional studies. Born in Scotland but settled in South Shields after a period at sea, McLea is a celebrated Northumbrian artist who was best known for his coastal scenes. McLea exhibited widely and is well documented in various reference books including 'The Artists of Northumbria' by Marshall Hall. The artist's work is comparatively rare to the market and is highly collectable. McLea spent several years working at sea, before focusing on his art. Due to his experi...
