Description

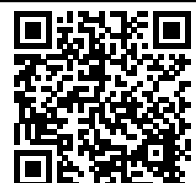

An impressive and extremely well made pair of antique inlaid mahogany side tables. They were made in England, they date from around the 1930's. The quality is outstanding, they are of very useful proportions and have a beautiful design. The tops have raised pie crust edges, cross banded borders and beautiful satin wood inlays. They stand on finely tapered legs terminating in spade feet, and are finished identically front and back, each side has a pull out tray slide shelf. We have had these recently re-polished, the condition is superb for their age.
