Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive antique Art Deco George VI English sterling silver drinks tray with handles; part of our Art Deco silverware collection. This exceptional antique George VI sterling silver drinks tray has an oval-shaped form. The oval surface of this silver tray is plain and unembellished. The raised rounded border of the tray is encompassed with plateaued, Art Deco shaped rim. This antique silver tray is fitted with a fine pair of sterling silver handles ornamented with further Art Deco decoration to the handpieces. Such versatile examples in this desirable medial size and high condition are becoming increasingly difficult to locate. A sophisticated Art Deco silver drinks tray with handles is equally suited to serving champagne or cocktails as to adorning a bar cart or sideboard. A timeless gift for weddings, anniversaries or milestone celebrations. Condition This antique sterling silver tray is a superior gauge of silver, exceptional quality and in exceptional condition. This two handled silver tray has been professionally polished and is in presentation condition. Full hallmarks struck to the underside are very clear; the hallmarks are struck ...
