

SA1161345

Antique George III York Sterling Silver Old English Pattern Gravy Straining Spoon (1790)

Price

GBP 2,250

| USD $3,045 | EUR 2,633

Item Reference: SA1161345

Date of manufacture: 1750

Dimensions

Height = 3.3 cm (1.3")

Width = 5.9 cm (2.3")

Depth = 38.2 cm (15.0")

Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive, antique George III York sterling silver Old English pattern gravy straining spoon; an addition to our collectable Georgian silverware collection. This exceptional antique George III York sterling silver straining spoon has been crafted in the Old English pattern. The plain bowl of this gravy spoon incorporates an impressive arched strainer ornamented with pierced decorated holes. The surface of the handle terminal is embellished with the contemporary engraved initials 'WC'. The reverse of this antique silver straining spoon features a rounded heel to the bowl and pip to the handle terminal. This exceptional and desirable Georgian straining spoon was crafted by the renowned York silversmiths John Hampston & John Prince. This York sterling silver straining spoon makes a distinguished and refined gift for connoisseurs of fine dining or collectors of provincial silver, and holds special significance for enthusiasts of York craftsmanship. Condition This antique silver straining spoon is an exceptional gauge of silver, exceptional quality and in exceptional condition. Full hallmarks struck to the reverse of the handle are all very clear.

Internal Ref: C9367

Seller Details

AC Silver

35B St Georges Terrace Jesmond Newcastle Upon Tyne Tyne and Wear NE2 2SU United Kingdom

Tel: 0191 240 2645

International Tel: +44 191 240 2645

