Description

A Victorian iron framed button back armchair of unusual design, circa 1880, with a circular-shaped sprung seat and open arms, raised on mahogany scroll front supports and original brass and porcelain castors. The chair is in good structural order with no lumps to the seat. The red velvet upholstery is a little grubby but could be improved by steam cleaning. I can arrange re-covering with my upholsterer and supply fabric if required - please get in touch for further details. 88cm high, the seat 63cm wide, 50cm deep and 38cm high. Total depth of chair 79cm.
