Description

Fine large antique French three piece clock set having a fisherman in period dress standing in a boat and looking out to sea supported by a round wooden plinth on top of an eight day French movement with an impressive brass face, original hands and brass bezel, matching pair of figures one being a lady in period dress holding a child and the other a fisherman looking out to sea. They both stand on rocks and are supported by a round wooden plinth. In good working order. A wonderful set which seems to depict a rescue scene of a boat or person lost at sea.

Note: Please note that antique clocks are complex and sensitive mechanical objects. While some clocks may be running at the time of listing we cannot guarantee ongoing performance without a full inspection and testing period by our specialist horologist. Where inspection, testing, or servicing is required this process can take between 2-12 weeks depending on the clock, the work needed, and current workload. This careful approach helps ensure the clock is properly assessed...
