Description

A gorgeous small silver mounted caster dating from the end of the 18th Century. This attractive piece has a cut glass body cut with hobnails, slice and step cutting. There is a polished pontil mark to the base. The hallmarked silver lid is mounted on a matching silver collar. An attractive and useful piece, although originally for pepper or spice, it would also be suitable for caster sugar. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £12.00 UK £20.00 Europe £26.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits to the silver and no chips or cracks to the glass. There are a few tiny fleabites here and there, commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable, with some distortion to the Maker's mark. Maker :- Possibly Robert Hennell. Date :- London 1792. Base diameter :- 5 cms. Height :- 14.2 cms.
